I give my permission for my child to attend the American Red Cross Babysitting Training. I understand that once registered, no refunds will be given. Moving my child into a class on a later date is acceptable if room permits. The Red Cross reserves the right to send a student home with no refund if they are disruptive to the class. Students earn their Babysitting Certificate by participating in class discussion, practicing all required skills, and showing a general understanding on how to be a responsible babysitter. Class begins promptly and students arriving late will have missed vital information and may be asked to leave & return at a later date.
